

Langley Primary School Family Inclusion Questionnaire

Spring Term 2005

Family name (optional) _____

Year group(s) of child/ren _____

Please put a tick in the box that indicates your opinion	YES	Sometimes	NO	I need more information
Everyone is made to feel welcome at Langley Primary
Pupils help each other
Staff work well with each other
Staff and pupils treat each other with respect
Parents are encouraged to be involved in the life of the school
Staff and Governors work well together
Teachers do not favour one group of pupils over another (eg. gender/culture/ability)
Teachers try to help all pupils to do their best
Teachers think all pupils are equally important
Langley Primary makes it easy for children with particular needs to join the school
When you first join Langley you are helped to feel settled
Teachers like all teaching groups equally
Teachers try to sort out difficulties over behaviour without wanting children to leave Langley
Teachers work hard to make Langley Primary a good place to come to
The school's actions to deal with issues of bullying are effective
Teachers try to make lessons easy to understand for everyone
Pupils are taught to appreciate people who have different backgrounds to their own

Pupils generally know what will be taught next in lessons
Pupils' work is marked effectively and gives the children a clear understanding of what they need to do to improve their learning and progress
In lessons, teachers expect pupils to help each other
Pupils and teachers behave well towards each other in lessons
Teachers help all pupils with their learning within lessons
Teaching assistants work well with pupils
Langley's homework policy is effective
Homework is properly explained and is valued by teachers at Langley
Activities are arranged outside lessons which interest everyone
The Home School book is useful as a communication channel

... and finally!!

We find the weekly newsletter a good source of information
There could be some improvements in the newsletter
We would like the newsletter emailed to us

Three things Langley Primary School does well...

1.
2.
3.

Three things we think Langley Primary School could improve on ...

1.
2.
3.

Thank you – we appreciate this feedback!