

Monday 16th March 2009 Birmingham Town Hall

It is no longer a surprise to have an excellent evening courtesy of the Music service. We did have the pleasure again on Monday night and could not fail to be impressed by the discipline and maturity of the performers.

The Vivace, Wind Starters and Millennium strings all performed well but the finale of the Irish Rhapsody by the SYWO was a great polished performance by any standards.

I hope the rest of the programme goes well and many congratulations on all that you have achieved.
