SOLIHULL ARTS COMPLEX

presents

ROBIN HOOD

Join Robin, his trusty sidekick Friar Tuck, plus fair maidens and merry men in their secret leafy forest hideaway this season in Solihull's first ever Robin Hood panto show. All the usual fun and downright silliness in this action-packed show full of music, mirth and dancing, suitable for the whole family.

Book early to guarantee your preferred date and seats, particularly for shows during school holidays.

Robin Hood is written and directed by Malcolm Stent who stars as Friar Tuck accompanied by a professional ensemble cast of actors, dancers and musicians.

Solihull's panto is beloved by audiences and critics alike and usually sells out. Ice creams, snacks and drinks are available from the venue's licensed Café Bar.

Robin Hood is sponsored by Touchwood who offer free parking for arrivals after 6pm throughout December. Touchwood Grotto is open daily from the end of November in the Map Room.

SIGNED (B.S.L) PERFORMANCES

On Wednesday 28th December at 7pm British sign language by Mary Connell.

Please mention at booking to be seated nearby.

ACCESS/ MOBILITY

Special requirements should be planned in advance and booked early to ensure appropriate seating.

Free CARER seats are offered to wheelchair users.

Ask about Blue Door Access for groups arriving by minibus.

PANTO PARTIES

Ask a Catering Supervisor about panto parties on certain dates during the run of Robin Hood. Special party table, menu, cakes and party bags are all available by arrangement as is a 'guest appearance' by a member of the show cast during panto parties. Call 0121 704 6813 to discuss.
