

Accessing Ancestry remotely via the Solihull website

If you go to <https://solihull.spydus.co.uk> then you get this page.

Library services under COVID

All Solihull libraries will close on Wednesday 6 January 2021. This is to support the national lockdown and safeguard residents and staff alike. The decision will be reviewed at the end of January.

Solihull Council's Cabinet Member for Stronger and Safer Communities, Councillor Alison Rolf, said: "I have taken advice from our Director of Public Health and will be closing our libraries this evening."

The screenshot shows a banner for 'Ancestry Library Edition'. At the top, there is a red banner with the text 'from your library' and 'digital' next to a smartphone icon. Below this is a dark blue header with the text 'Ancestry Library Edition'. The main content area has a white background with the Ancestry logo and the text 'ancestry library edition'. A blue circle highlights the text 'Log in here to access Ancestry Library Edition from home. Access to this resource has been temporarily expanded to library cardholders working remotely, courtesy of ProQuest and its partner Ancestry.' To the right of the banner is a sidebar with the text 'Keep up to d library while move.' and 'Download th iOS and Andi'. Below the banner are two red boxes: 'Get free eAudiobooks from your library' and 'Get free eMagazines from your library', both with 'rb digital' logos. At the bottom, there is a dark blue header with the text 'eAudiobooks from BorrowBox' and a small green icon.
