

Borrowing and listening to eaudiobooks on the Libby app

Logging in

Once you have downloaded the Libby app, you will need to choose your local library. You can have more than one library service on the app.

VIEW A MAP OF LIBRARIES

For your library, search for Solihull or an individual branch library within Solihull, the service is the same.

Guess your Library will detect your location from the device itself, ie a GPS-type location.

Once you have chosen Solihull, you will need to register your library card or number

Click on the symbol at the top right

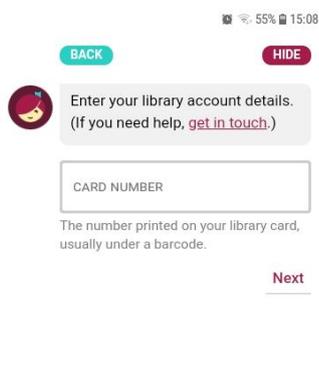

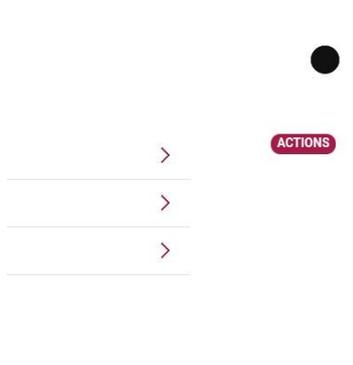

Click Add a Library Card

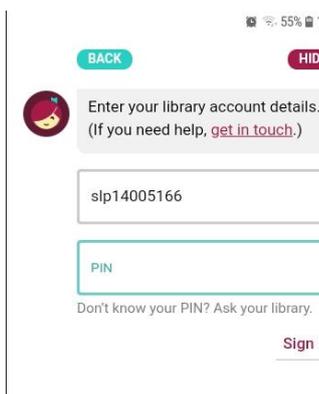

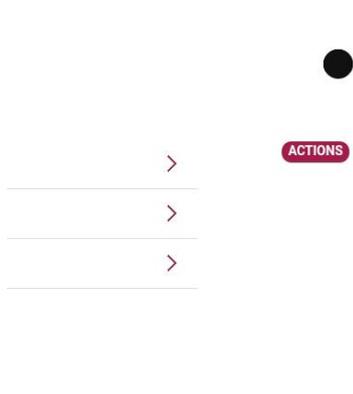

You can add more than one person's card and add cards for other libraries outside Solihull

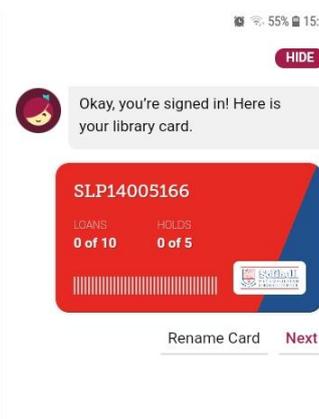

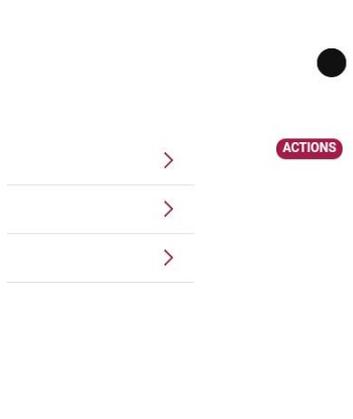

You can enter a library card number here
Click on Enter Library Account Details

Enter a library card number with the letters included, and with no spaces eg
SLP1234567x
WP0000010000
H00001234
Letters can be upper or lower case.

Enter your PIN
This will always be a 4 digit number.
Then click Sign In

Once signed in, your card will display like this. You can rename the card if you want to distinguish from another family member's.

GUIDES
Our librarians curate these guides to help you explore our catalog.

In Library, you can

Search for particular titles or words

Browse the selections on screen

Or Explore by a variety of topics, genres and age groups.

This includes a link to What's Available right now for audiobooks as well as ebooks.

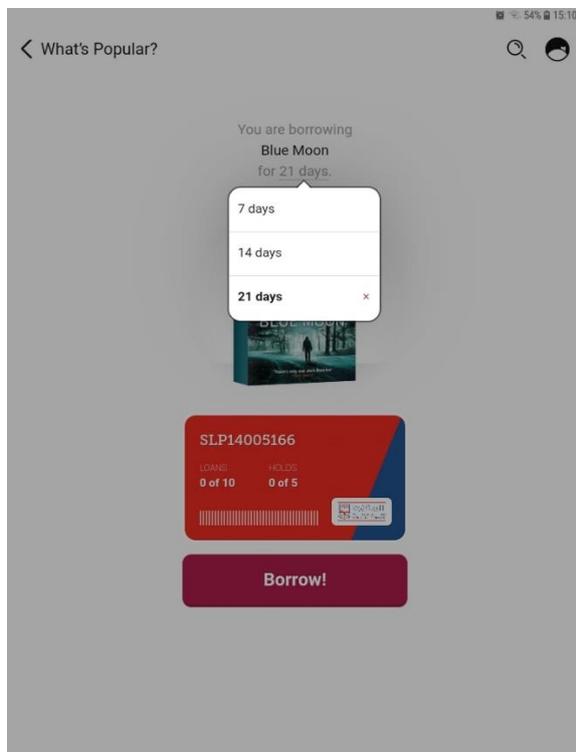

To borrow an audiobook, click on Borrow next to the entry

You can borrow up to 10 ebooks and up to 6 audiobooks

There is no limit on how many magazines you borrow.

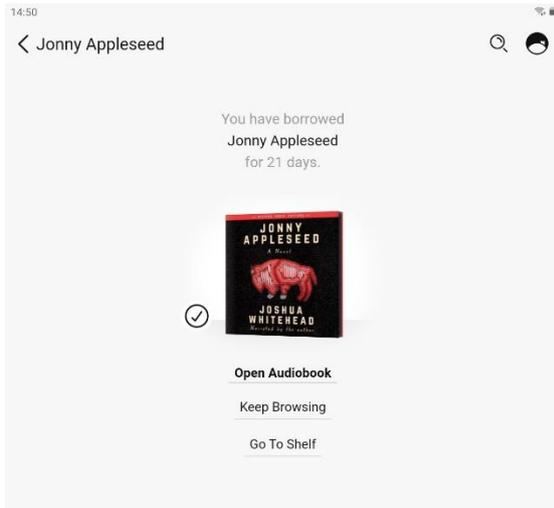

Remember you can also use our other audiobook supplier, Borrowbox

You can choose how long you want the loan for.

Remember you can return the loan once you have finished with it

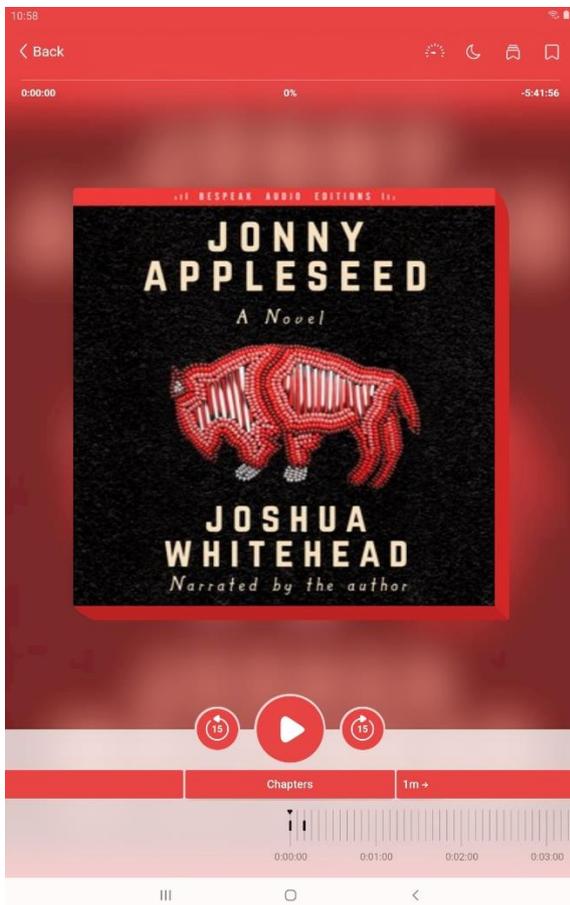

Click on the large Borrow! Button once you have chosen the length of the loan.

Once borrowed, click on Open Audiobook to view it

The book will be in your Shelf until you return it or the loan period expires.

Listening to the audiobook

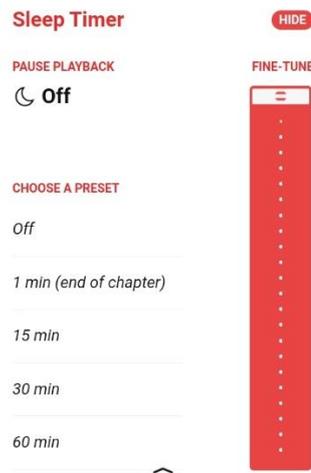

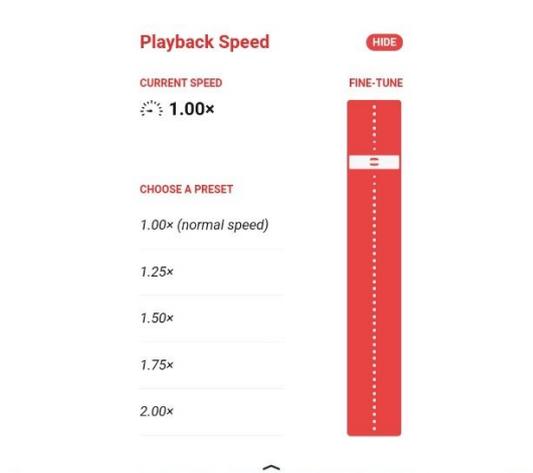

Once the eaudiobook is opened, there are many features to help you listen more comfortably.

At the top right, in order:

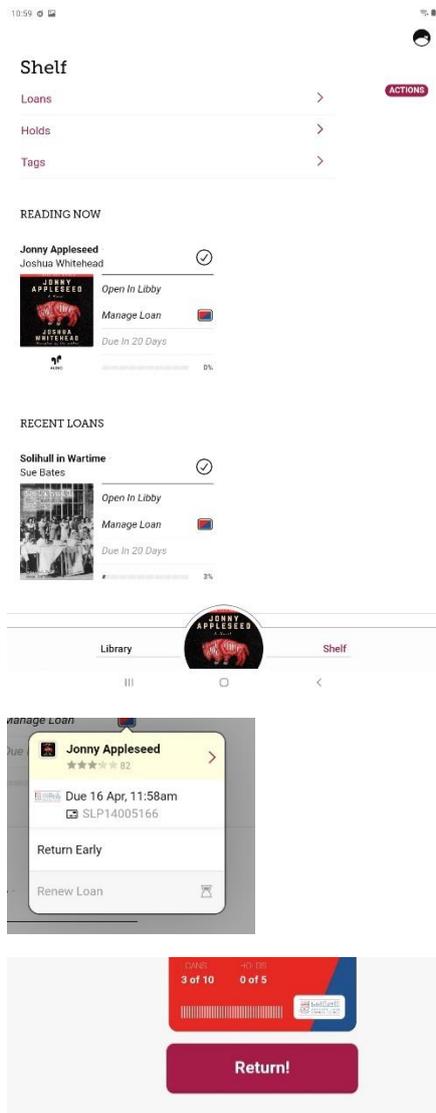

- A button so you can change the playback speed
- A sleep timer
- A button to view bookmarks and one to create them

The length of the book in hours, minutes and seconds is also shown.

At the bottom of the screen a grid to jump to different sections and chapters, and buttons to Play, and to jump 15 seconds backwards or forwards.

Returning an eaudiobook

You can return an eaudiobook after you have finished it even if the loan period has not expired.

This means the eaudiobook is available to other customers immediately.

To do this click on Manage Loans

You will have the option to Return Early, followed by a Return! button as confirmation.

The loan will immediately delete from your card allowing you to borrow another title.

Place Hold!

If you place a hold on this title, it should be ready for you to borrow in about 2 weeks.

2	copies in use
1	person waiting

If a title is in high demand, then you will need to place a Hold to reserve it for when it is available.

Click on Place Hold next to the title and a screen will come up telling you how long the waiting list is and how long you might have to wait, if everyone uses the full loan period.

If you want to wait, click Place Hold! and you will be notified when your title is available.

You can cancel the Hold in your Shelf.
