A NEW YORK TIMES EDITORS' CHOICE

A GUARDIAN SUMMER READING CHOICE

'A new kind of campus novel... Taylor endows his narrative with the precision of science and the intimacy of memoir.' – The New Yorker

'A tender, deeply-felt, perfectly-paced novel about solitude and society, sexuality and race.' – Colm Tóibín

Wallace has spent his summer in the lab breeding a strain of microscopic worms. He is four years into a biochemistry degree at a lakeside Midwestern university, a life that's a world away from his childhood in Alabama.

His father died a few weeks ago, but Wallace didn't go back for the funeral, and he hasn't told his friends Miller, Yngve, Cole and Emm. For reasons of self-preservation, he has become used to keep

Once the Tag is placed, it will show against the title.

You can also see the Tags and titles against those Tags in your Shelf, shown with this symbol.

In your Shelf, the number of your Loans, Holds and Tags will show.

Click on Tags and the Regular and Smart Tags will show, you can then jump to the titles in each list.

Creating a Smart Tag to be notified of new magazine issues

You can find details of the over 3000 magazine titles available to borrow from the Libby front page or by clicking on the Magazines separate page.

Click on the magazine title you are interested in.

Borrow the magazine and you will be prompted to set a Tag. If you have already set up the Tag for other titles, you can click on Tag and assign the Tag to this title.

New Tag

A Notify Me tag will let you know when one of your libraries acquires titles in a series, or by the same author.

You'll receive a push notification or email when new titles are added.

Create A Notify Me Tag

A further explanation will follow.
At the moment the Notify Me tags are not able to cover books and audiobooks but this is being worked on.
Click on Create a Notify Me Tag.
