You have now registered and will not need to do that again.

The first page will show any existing loans and reservations, and any previous loans.

To see what eaudiobooks are available, click on the link (ringed) at the bottom of the screen.

Ebooks are also available, the link is next to the eaudiobooks one.

Duration: 4 hours, 56 r PREVIEW BORROW ()
Fiction/Non-Fiction: Fiction

Details of what titles are available will show, in a variety of subject categories.

Use the headings at the top of the page to look for titles by age group, subject or genre.

With the magnifying glass at the bottom of the screen, you can search for individual authors and titles.

Click on a title page to get the full information and to borrow the title.

You can borrow up to 5 titles.

The individual title page will give information on the book, the reader and the length of the title.

Click on Borrow at the bottom of the page

If the title is on loan you will be able to reserve it.

Click on the red arrow at the top of the page to go back to the home screen.

Once the book is issued to you, you will be prompted to download the whole eaudiobook or individual chapters.

Once downloaded the Play screen will appear

With the controls you can:

Go back or forward 30 seconds

Jump to the start or the end of the track/chapter

Increase/decrease the speed of playback

If you have finished the book and want to return it, click on the My Loans icon at the bottom of the screen.

You will see the dates the loan will expire and you can Return the title or Renew it (if no-one else has reserved it)

Changing the Borrowbox app for a different library service

It is possible to use the Borrowbox app for more than one library service.

This will keep your existing loans and reservations in place for each library, but will remove any downloads. Once you switch back you will be able to download the loan again.
