

Caribbean Family History
records held
at Solihull Central Library

Solihull Central Library is an affiliate FamilySearch Centre so it is now possible for anyone to order microfilms from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS) [often called Mormons] for viewing in Solihull. For general information about tracing your family tree and for details of how to order microfilms from FamilySearch, see our website www.solihull.gov.uk/caribbeanfamilyhistory

Members of the Solihull & Birmingham Caribbean Family History Group, and the Jamaican Family Roots group, are actively seeking to order microfilms with the aim of creating a major collection of Caribbean records in the West Midlands. The attached list includes the records received so far. Both groups meet at Solihull Central Library.

You can see the microfilms during normal library opening hours (no appointment needed) at:

The Solihull & Birmingham Caribbean Family History Group (email: cfhg.sol.birm@gmail.com) and The Jamaican Family Roots Group (email: linkjamaica1@gmail.com) would be delighted to hear from you if you are researching ancestors from the Caribbean.

Both groups meet regularly at Solihull Central Library, and it is thanks to group members that the Caribbean family history records on this list are available in Solihull.

The records have been microfilmed and made available by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Some Caribbean records have been indexed and made available of the church's website:
